

PROGRAMME

APRODEV GOOD CONFERENCE

No Security Without Food Security – No Food Security Without Gender Equality

Hosted by HEKS and Bread for All
Switzerland, Kappel am Albis, 18-20 September 2002

Wednesday 18 September, 2002

- 12.00-13.00 Arrival and Lunch
- 13.00-14.00 Conference registration
- 14.00 Introduction to Conference
- 14.15 Gendered Dynamics of Food Security
State of art of research on gender and food security
Professor Anke Niehof, University of Wageningen
- 15.30 Coffee
- 16.00 Impact of Trade Liberalisation on Food Security and Gender Relations
- Effect of trade liberalisation on women's and men's livelihoods
Marianne Hochuli, Bern Declaration & International Gender and Trade Network
 - Impact of the EU Common Agricultural Policy on food security in developing countries
Rudolf Buntzel, Protestant Development Service (EED)
 - Assessing the likely impacts of EU trade liberalisation on poor women and men
Nonto Mugabe, Gender and Trade Research Initiative, Zimbabwe
- 18.00 Welcome by Bread For All and HEKS
Christoph Stückelberger, Director of BfA
- 18.30 Dinner
- 20.00-20.45 Mela Sessions ***
Presentations on various topics by participants

Thursday, 19 September 2002

- 8.30 Theological Reflection
- 9.00 A Rights-based Approach to Food
Anuradha Mittal, Food First, USA/India
- 10.15 Coffee
- 10.45 Gender Budgeting Initiatives to Food Security
Pethu Serote, Gender Education and Training Network (GETNET), South Africa
- 12.00 Lunch

- 14.00 Introduction to Workshops
Implications for policy makers and development agencies
- 14.30 Workshops
- A Rights-Based Approach to Global Agricultural Trade and Gender
Anuradha Mittal, Food First, and Rudolf Buntzel, EED
 - Mainstreaming Gender into Food Security Programmes – Application of a frameworks (household units (IAC), livelihoods (DFID), Food security (UNICEF) to development interventions
Lyda Res, International Agricultural Centre (IAC), University of Wageningen; and Dawit Kebede, Programme Manager, NCA Ethiopia (requested)
 - Applied Gender Budget Initiatives to Food Security – Challenges and Lessons Learnt in South Africa
Pethu Serothe, GETNET, South Africa
 - Gendered Effects of Markets on Food Security – A case study from Zimbabwe
Nonto Mugabe, Gender and Trade Research Initiative, Zimbabwe, and Marianne Hochuli, Bern Declaration & International Gender and Trade Network
- 16.00 Coffee
- 16.30 Continuation of Workshops
- 18.00 Dinner
- 20.00 Social Evening or Free Time

Friday, 20 September 2002

- 8.30 Theological Reflection
- 9.00 Workshop Reports
Presentation of key issues to be taken forward
- 10.00 Coffee
- 10.30 Synthesis and conclusions of Conference
Clive Robinson
- 10.45 Panel Discussion
Reactions to conference findings and ways forward
- 11.30 Feed back from HEKS
- 11.45 Closure of Conference
- 12.00 Lunch

* Note on Mela sessions: The Mela sessions offer participants the possibility to share their work experience related to the conference topic with other participants; any presentation should have a clear gender focus. It will be organised in two parallel sessions. Each session will last for 45 minutes, allowing for presentations of 15-20 minutes and discussion time. We kindly ask all interested participants to provide us with a brief written presentation in advance.